2. INTRODUCTION

- 2.1 The Act gives effect to the constitutional right of access to any information held by any public or private body that is required for the exercise or protection of any rights.
- 2.2 The Act sets out the procedures attached to such request.
- 2.3 Section 9 of the Act, however, recognises that such right to access to information is subject to certain justifiable limitations, for instance limitations aimed at:
- a) The reasonable protection of privacy;
  - b) Commercial confidentiality; and
  - c) Effective, efficient and good governance.
- 2.4 Section 50 of the Act obliges private bodies to compile a Manual, which would assist a person to obtain access to information held by the private body and which stipulates the minimum requirements which the Manual has to comply with.
- 2.5 The purpose of the Manual is therefore to inform a person or Requester on how to obtain access to any Record held by the Company which may be required for the exercise or protection of any rights, thereby giving effect to Section 50 of the Act.

7.2 Protection of Personal Information Act, 2013 (POPIA)

7.2.1 The Protection of Personal Information Act, 4 of 2013, (“POPIA” ) regulates and controls the processing of a person’s personal information, including the collection, use, and transfer thereof. In terms of POPIA, a person (Responsible Party) has a legal duty to collect, use, transfer and destroy (process) another person’s (Data Subject) personal information (Personal Information) in a lawful, legitimate and responsible manner and in accordance with the provisions of POPIA and the 8 processing conditions set out under POPIA.

7.2.2. The Company does and will from time to time process Personal Information which belongs to, or is held by a Data Subject.

7.2.3 This processing is required by the Company to allow it to perform the following:

- to pursue its business objectives and strategies,
- to comply with a variety of lawful obligations, including without detracting from the generality thereof, those detailed under clause 7 above:
- to carry out actions for the conclusion and performance of a contract as between the Company and Data Subjects;

PAIA MANUAL

- to put in place protective mechanisms to protect the Data Subject's and / or the Company's legitimate interest (s) including the performance of risk assessments and risk profiles;
- to obtain as required by law or to protect the respective party's legitimate interests, Personal Information from a credit bureau or credit provider or credit association, information about certain Data Subject's credit records, including personal information about any judgement or default history;
- to provide as required by law or to protect the respective party's legitimate interests Personal Information to credit bureaus, credit providers or credit associations, including information about certain Data Subject's credit records, including personal information about any judgement or default history;
- for the purposes of making contact with the Data Subject and attending to the Data Subject's enquiries and requests;
- for the purpose of providing the Data Subject from time to time with information pertaining to the Company, its officers employees, services and goods and other ad hoc business related information;
- to pursue the Data Subject's and / or the Company's legitimate interests, or that of a third party to whom the Personal Information is supplied;
- for the purposes of providing, maintaining, and improving the Company products and services, and to monitor and analyse various usage and activity trends pertaining thereto;
- for the purposes of performing internal operations, including the management of employees, employee wellness programs, the performance of all required HR and IR functions, call centres, customer care lines and enquiries, attending to all financial matters including budgeting, planning, invoicing, facilitating and making payments, making deliveries, sending receipts, and generally providing commercial support, where needed, requested or required; and
- for the purpose of preventing fraud and abuse of the Company processes, systems, procedures and operations, including conducting internal and external investigations and disciplinary enquiries and hearings.

- 7.2.4 The Company will ensure that the Data Subject's Personal Information is held and / or stored securely. In this regard the Company will ensure that it performs regular audits regarding the safety and the security of all Data Subject's Personal Information. Once the Data Subject's Personal Information is no longer required due to the fact that the purpose for which the Personal Information was held has come to an end and expired, such Personal Information will be safely and securely archived for the required prescribed periods or longer should this be required by the Company. The Company will thereafter ensure that such Personal Information is permanently destroyed.
- 7.2.5 The Company may from time to time have to disclose a Data Subject's Personal Information to other parties, including other organs of state, other departments or subsidiaries, product or third party service providers, regulators and or governmental officials, overseas service providers and or agents, but such disclosure will always be subject to an agreement which will be concluded as between the Company and the party to whom it is disclosing the Data Subject's Personal Information to, which contractually obliges the recipient of this Personal Information to comply with strict confidentiality and data security conditions.
- 7.2.6 Where Personal Information and related data is transferred to a country which is situated outside the borders of South Africa, the Data Subject's Personal Information will only be transferred to those countries which have similar data privacy laws in place or where the recipient of the Personal Information is bound contractually to a no lesser set of obligations THAN those imposed by POPIA.
- 7.3 Below the Company sets out the respective categories of information that it holds in accordance with section 51(1)(d) of the Act, which includes Personal Information. This information is available only on request and subject to approval in terms of the Act and this Manual . It is further recorded that the accessibility of documents and records may be subject to the grounds of refusal set out in the Act and this Manual.
